

The Magic Hour Egg Hunt

Across

- 2. In Carytown's heart, cakes and confections delight—this bakery makes every treat just right.
- 4. On Jahnke Road where colors pop, you'll find Southside's sweetest candy shop.
- 7. Church Hill eats with a soulful plate—this tiny spot serves food that's great.
- 8. Northside scoops served in a pastel dream—Brookland Park's answer to your ice cream.
- 10. Near Monroe Park, with lights that shine, this historic stage brings stars to line.
- 11. In the James's flow, just off downtown's spine, a footbridge leads to rocks, trails, and time.
- 12. Broad Street's home for connection and thought—a "social café" with a mission well-wrought.

Down

- 1. Milkshakes, waffles, and chocolate thrills—Bon Air's dessert spot that gives all the chills.
- 3. Where tracks meet taps in the east end's rise—this Fulton brewery is a local prize.
- 5. Tucked in Bon Air, just off Buford Road, this café is cozy with caffeine mode.
- 6. In Richmond's boutique-lined Carytown row, this shop mixes vintage with fashion-forward glow.
- 9. On Hull Street's path where flavors convene, this vegan spot serves comfort cuisine from where the team wears green.